

Euclid Claims Proposition

Euclid's claims ethos is simple: we strive to pay valid claims promptly, as this is fundamental to the efficacy of the policies we underwrite. We have a clear commitment to fair claims handling and service excellence, which is underpinned by Euclid's Claims Charter.

Claims Ethos

We have a deliberate strategy of managing claims in-house, headed up by experienced Claims Counsel who has spent more than 20 years working within the UK Company & Lloyd's markets, in the financial and professional risks space:

- ✓ Seamless personal continuum from placement through to claims stage.
- ✓ Own the claims process from start to finish: all claims important regardless of value or complexity.
- ✓ Partner with our clients, understand their business needs, respond proactively and transparently.
- ✓ Drive forward litigation, using in-house expertise as well as trusted legal relationships.
- ✓ Empowerment from our capacity providers to enable us to swiftly agree and pay claims.
- ✓ Do not over-rely on outsourcing or technology: we are a human centric business first.
- ✓ We genuinely add value to the client journey, not just the outcome.

Claims Charter

We set out below a list of standards that Euclid and its capacity providers have at the forefront of their mind when managing Euclid's claims portfolio. Whilst there may be good reasons why such timeframes cannot always be met, by aspiring to meet these targets whenever practicable, this should maximise the prospects of fair claims handling and service excellence:

- | | | |
